

Los Gatos, Cal.,
March 9, 1898.

My dear Walsh,

I have only time to say that I've been notified of the acceptance of your Egyptian skit by the Examiner. On publication Ill send you copies. I tinkered it a wee bit in a way, or rather for reasons, that I'll explain to you; my object in this note is to prevent you from sending it for publication elsewhere because of the delay.

Yours ever,
Ambrose Bierce.