

Wright's, Cal.,
May 9, 1899.

Dear Walsh,

How have I done it—fairly well?

Yours in virgas haste,
Ambrose Bierce.

Say, your uncle is keeping a good hotel in Santa Cruz. If you still wish to come to California why doesn't he give you a place as clerk? I've taken the liberty to ask my good friend Dr. Doyle to suggest it to him.

B.