

An Evening with Seneca

Join Us in the John Miller Burnam Classics Library

417 Blegen Library Building

Thursday, October 5, 4:00-6:15 pm

Celebrating the life and philosophical work of the Roman author, philosopher, and politician Seneca with a panel of experts who will discuss the tensions between political power and personal sincerity under the notorious Emperor Nero.

Reception and Book Exhibition, Book Signing of James Romm's best-selling book Dying Every Day.

Panelists:

Professor James Romm, Bard College

Professor Gareth Williams, Columbia University

Professor Christopher Trinacty, Oberlin College

moderated by Professor Adam Kamesar, Hebrew Union College.

Musical performance of works by Dmitri Shostakovich performed by a chamber ensemble, directed by Yo Shionoya.

Undergraduate presentation on an experimental week of "Life as a Stoic" by an interdepartmental group of UC students.

University of
CINCINNATI | LIBRARIES